Meeting Raises Questions But Produce Few Answers

Volunteer Firemen and City Council were alerted Monday night to discuss the fire department and the extra fire truck driver, Warren McCall, as an aftermath of the regular fire truck driver Frank Richter getting an "un-authorized" Friday off.

Richter had talked to councilman Griffith who is in charge of the fire committee that he was to be off and by Griffith's not challenging him took it as tacit authority.

Committee Head Griffith and Fire Chief Black both were in agreement that "If any man in Cameron deserves a day off it is Frank Richter." Each man present, including Mayor Weems, was in agreement that after 35 years of 24 hour duty this agreement did not stop the discussion.

On June 19, a regular Tuesday night meeting, the council voted unanimously to allow Chief of Police Dolan to hire a man (who turned out to be Warren McCall) and to suggest his salary at a subsequent meeting. This man, it was agreed at that time, would serve the police department daily and at the same time do the 24 hour standby duty as second driver which was formerly done by Bill Richter, who resigned.

The combination man was decided upon after it was found, through research, that the full-time second driver did not give the city a fire credit which had been presumed until that time.

It was pointed out by City Attorney Bill Black that the cities of Hearne, Rockdale and Rosebud do not even employ one full time fire driver. The first volunteer to arrive at the station drives the truck. He then volunteered the observation that "We should be able to sweat out one day a week if they can do it all the time."

Dean White, an invited volunteer, pointed out that the "Day off" taken by Richter was spent in checking new fire outlets in the city and certain other things which he should be allowed to do at intervals for the good of the department but cannot do if he has to stay at the station. Said White "He is just like an old fire horse." If the siren had announced a fire Richter would have been there day off or no day off.

Fire Chief Black said "I was under the impression that this was all settled and everybody in the fire department was satisfied."

Dean White, volunteer driver, assured the council of the unswerving devotion of himself and of the members of the volunteer department at all times. White covered the driver position when Richter went to Edinburg to the fire convention and he added that Friday would be "right down my alley" and a good day to let the regular driver off.

With Fire Chief Black and councilman Griffith, fire committee chairman in agreement that Richter had been giving the second driver all the instructions he had been instructed to give there was

Little River Irrigation May Be Profitable

The continuious drouth is creating more interest in irrigation among farmers in the Little River bottom around Cameron. Because of this interest Central Texas SCD supervisors are sponsoring an irrigation tour to the Brazos bottom near Hearne to observe some of their irrigation methods and ways of preparing their land for irrigation systems.

The tour will leave the Henderson building in Cameron by 9:00 a.m. on August 1, and, should be completed by noon in Hearne.

Plenty of Mud For Candidates Despite Extended Drouth

By James E. Bo Patterson

"How does the land lie in Texas?" a Texan was asked in Washington and the answer came back "The land don't lie, just the politicians."

Not since the magazine Time styled the Senate race of 1941, occasioned by the death of Senator Morris Sheppard "A political sideshow" has the Texas electorate been so uncertain as to the outcome of a governor's race or been confronted with such an array of office seekers as this year.

"If you can't convince 'em then confuse 'em," seems to be the sum and substance of the race for the "throne" of Texas Governor. Texans are "Warned" by each candidate about everthing from soup to nuts and most of the voters can't decide definitely whether they are "In the soup" if they vote for a certain candidate or just plain nuts.

During that 1941 embroglio the biscuit passer announced to the boys in the Texas Legislature that if they didn't behave themselves while he was in Washington that he would come back and run for a third term as governor. He's making good that threat.

It was on election night, June 28, 1941, the traditional O'Daniel "victory party" on the Mansion lawn was dampened by the midnight news that the Governor was trailing Lyndon Johnson by 3,000 votes for U. S. Senator. For three days Johnson held the lead as late returns trickled in. Newspapers saluted the "new Senator" and the Austin press speculated as to Johnson's successor in the Texas Commons. But the final returns eliminated the necessity for another special election. The top four candidates showed the following tally: O'Daniel 175,590; Johnson 174,279; Jerry Mann, 140,807 and Marty Dies 80,653... Edwin Waller III, with a long record of spectacularly unsuccessful races led sports fans to recall the consolation of a manager to one of his pitchers after the team had lost 29 straight games "Don't let it worry you, boy—we can't win 'em all." He'd garnered 24 votes.

O'Daniel had traded the state mansion, servants and all, for a something different in Texas politics, this year we have candidate Price Daniel doing this in reverse.

Daniel partisans say "Let's get stature in the governor's office." "Someone with influonce in Washington." We've had all the "Stature" the law allows for the past four years with a governor who could call Washington and say "Look Ike do you have an extra bedroom, I'm figuring on coming up next year" and get the reply

Be At Your Precinct Convention Saturday; They are Important

Politics has been in full swing this week, but the pay off comes Saturday, July 28 when the Democratic Primary will take place. There are 45 voting precincts in Milam County.

Election supplies are being delivered this week by L. A. Petty who has had charge of this particular job for several years.

One of the most important events of Saturday are the precinct conventions that will be held in 42 precincts at 2:30 p.m. and at 7:30 in Rockdale and the two Cameron precincts. All precincts chairmen will take note that just the three named above will be held at night. Every voter in each precinct is urged to attend his or her precinct convention, chairman Max McClaren said. This makes for better representation and democracy when all people participate in such conventions.

The participation that took place in the precinct conventions in May was the best seen in many years in Milam County. Every person that votes should be vitally interested in what is going on in the political realm, McClaren added. The same turn out of voters should also take place Saturday as did on May 5. Be at your precinct convention and voice

Rabid Animals Found To Be On Increase In Milam County

Seven skunks from this area have been killed and sent to Austin for rabies inspection and exactly that number of positive reports have been returned from the State Department of Health.

A prized bird dog belonging to T. C. Lewis of the Marlow community, was bitten by one of the rabid cats on Wednesday of last week.

Sheriff Carl C. Black said that the dog is being treated at a Cameron Veterinary hospital and he asked that people be warned to protect their livestock by having their dogs vaccinated because of the danger of the dogs being bitten by one of the little animals, becoming rabid, and in turn seriously endangering the welfare of the livestock.

Blood Donations Fall Short Due To Vacations, Other Activities

Fifty-four persons, seventeen of them for the first time, volunteered to donate a pint of blood to the Red Cross Bloodmobile last Friday, July 20, when it came to Cameron. In addition to those who gave blood there were twenty one volunteer workers who served as canteen supervisors, registered nurses, physicians, registrars and helped in other capacities.

The blood committee of the local chapter of the Red Cross expressed appreciation for the operation even though the goal of seventy pints was not reached due to conflicting community activities and the fact that many regular donors were on vacations. Rev. John Solomon, recruitment chairman, expressed the hope that on the next visit in December the quota might be exceeded in order that the annual needs of the county might be met.

The honor roll of those who volunteered their blood Friday is as follows:

V. T. White, Leroy Massengale, Mrs. Doris Chancy, Mrs. Gladys McLane, Anton Moraw, Mrs. Frances Mikula, Mr. Horton Hess, Mr. Joe Simicek, Mr. Alfred Simicek, Lewis H. Johnson, Mrs. Pauline McDermott, Wm. J. Evard, Carl M. Weems, Mrs. Lorene Crouch, Mrs. Annie L. Rogers, Mrs. Alice Rhodes, Mrs. Minta Cryer, Frankie J. Ehler, Jack W. Herron, Willie L. Dolan, James E. Patterson, Drayton McLane, Florian R. Kolodejack, A. D. Lagrone Mrs. Marilyn Mitchell, Oscar G. Poehl, Kenneth G. Cryer, John L. Kuchera, Albert E. Poehl, F. C. Poehl, Geo. W. Smith, Dave N. Whitley, James O. Vassels, Roy Seaton, Felix Matula, J. W. Beale, Charles Edmondson, Jimmie H. Asher, Narvie Caperton, Thomas Strong, David Hernandez, Carl Black, C. J. Sutter, Mrs. Norma Wallace, Miss Mary Wiltschek, Rev. John C. Solomon, B. A. Slavik, Richard J. Bradshaw, Joe W. Kristof, Max Shumate, Mrs. Mary Kolodejcak, Louis Absnaider, Geo. L. Carroll, and Mrs. Evelyn Hearne.

There were six individuals who donated blood that now have given at least a gallon of blood to the Red Cross program, making them eligible for the Gallon Club. They were: Drayton McLane, Dave Whitley, Carl Black, C. J. Sutter, Rev. John C. Solomon and B. A. Slavik. Some of these have given much more than a gallon over a period of years. Others may be eligible for Gallon Club membership, and, will be received into the club when they make known their contributions to the blood committee.

Cameron's Night Police Have Many Busy Nights But This One Was Distracting

It was about the middle of July that the Cameron Police had a very busy night that couldn't be told at the time for good reasons.

The lights were put out for several hours at about 11:20 p.m. when a light pole on Batte and Orchard was knocked down by a driver who later, when found declared to be drunk and fined $50 and costs in county court for DWI. Seems he jumped from his car at the time of the collision and scampered away, but Night Chief William Brandenburg pulled out his little bag full of tricks to find the gentleman from Fort Hood, Texas and pin a charge on him.

What nettled the night chief was the fact that the errant driver pulled off his escapade just as "Brandy" was checking into an unusual case in which no charges were filed but a Buick automobile still lingers impounded at the Schiller Motor Company on the highway, even to this good day.

A couple of young ladies, one from Waco and the other from Taylor reported that after their car had to be "hospitalized" for a terrible cough or something one of them had telephoned her brother to send $50 and he had kindly responded the trouble began brewing.

Milam County's National Guard Returns Home From Summer Camp

The Guardsmen of Milam County's National Guard unit, Battery C, 649th Anti-aircraft Artillery Battalion, rolled out of their base camp at North Fort Hood by motor convoy and commercial bus shortly after 6 o'clock Sunday morning and arrived back home at the Armory in Cameron two hours later, ending the unit's nineth and what was generally believed to be their best summer camp.

They brought back deep tans from the blazing Central Texas sun, some experiences with the incredible dust on the tank trails, a feeling of accomplishment, and a payroll that totalled $6,872.40 for the two weeks encampment.

It was a rugged camp. That was especially true for the final week, four days of which were spent out in the field. Reveille came at 0400 hours - 4 A.M. in non military language - on Monday morning, and the Guardsmen moved out to the Sugar Loaf gas car range to fire their 40 mm's and 50 cal. machine-guns at moving ground targets. Tuesday they were in bivouac on a tactical problem, and on Wednesday and Thursday they moved to the AA ranges to fire at RCATS - Radio Controlled Ariel Targets, small fast radio controlled planes which made elusive targets as they flow past the firing line at speeds up to 150 miles an hour. The Battalion's gun crews made a number of near misses, but only one RCA-T was shot down. 't was credited to one of Battery C's M-16s, with SP3 Otto G. Zots, Jr. in charge.

Late Thursday afternoon the Guardsmen came in from the field to their base camp; Friday and Saturday they were busy turning in equipment and packing, getting ready to return home. Reveille was at 3 a.m. on Sunday, and the Battery's jeeps, M-42 tanks, M 16 half-tracks and trucks rolled across the IP at 6:45 on their way back to Cameron.

Just before they were dismissed Capt. James T. Terry, and F-sgt. Peter F. Kunz thanked Battery C's members for their co-operation and expressed the opinion it was a very successful camp.

Meet With Water Board and County Attorney Ease Water Situation on Big Elm Creek

Owners of land lying along the course of the Big Elm Creek in Milam County have been assured of the availability of water for their stock as a result of the joint efforts of the owners, the State Board of Water Engineers, and County Attorney Bob Nelson.

The water situation has been acute of late, due to the placing of a dam across the creek in Bell County by a resident of that county for irrigation purposes. Immediate relief was expected for Milam County owners along the creek, as evidenced by a letter explaining the arrangements sent the County Attorney last Saturday by R. M. Dixon, Chairman of the Water Board.

The dam owner has agreed to release the water until there is a continuous flow in Big Elm Creek carried to its confluence with the Little River. When this is accomplished, the owner of the dam may divert the water for his use, provided that a sufficient flow is allowed to reach those below.

Milam County land owners on the stream were directed to report any violation of these arrangements to the Water Board or to their County Attorney, Mr. Nelson, as soon as possible.

Bagworm Control

The bagworm is a leaf-eating worm that lives in a cocoonlike bag, to which are attached bits of leaves from the host plant. This worm is very well camaflouged due to the bits of leaves covering th cocoon being the same color as the host plant. Bagworms are now feeding on arborvitae (cedars) over a large area. These worms kill many arborvitae by eating all the foliage off the plants before they are detectd.

CONTROL: Bagworms are easily controlled by spraying with two tablespoons of the following materials added to 1 gallon of water: Toxaphene (regular cotton poison). This material can be purchased at most local stores. Lead Arsenate, or Chloradane used at the above rates will also give good control. One good spraying usually gives good control.

MILAM COUNTY FIELD DAY

Milam county farmers and ranchers will join Bell county for a tour of the Blackland Experiment Station on July 24. The program will start at 9 a.m. and be through by noon. The day is being sponsored by the Experiment Station, Extension Service and the Temple and Cameron Chambers of Commerce.

J. W. Collier, Station Agronmist and Ben Spears, Extension Agronomist, will discuss corn and grain sorghum hybrids. Several cotton varieties which are promising will be shown by Dr. Elton Cook, Station Agronomist. He will also discuss the best cotton defoliants for use in Central Texas. This will be of great interest to cotton farmers, since cotton harvest will begin in August.

For stockmen, the beef cattle were recently taken off grazing and were placed in the feed lot. The tour will include an inspection of the beef cattle. Pasture managemtnt practices will be shown where maximum grazing benefits are obtained in drough conditions.

Dr. R. M. Smith, Station Supt., extends all central Texas farmers an invitation to attend.

Farmers and stockmen in the Cameron area will meet on the west side of the Courthouse promptly at 8 a.m. on the 24th. This will assist in grouping our transportation in personal cars.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER UP IN ARMS OVER FOREIGN COUNTRIES' NEED OF MORE FENCES TO SIT ON

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River is writing about fences this week, instead of mending his own.

Dear editar:

Occasionally I like to look over private initiative, and a man, doesn't make any difference whether he's a justice of the peace or a state office holder or a Congressman, who can't find room to sit on the fence, pust ain't trying.

I'll admit that at times that the fence gets a little crowded, but I've always had faith in politicians and believe that when they can't find a fence to straddle, they'll build one.

Now you don't mean to tell me India and the other foreign countries are now going to expect the something to sit on? Isn't that carrying foreign aid a little far?

I say it's one thing to lend them money, send them weapons and amunition, ship surplus food to them, but if they can't manage to find enough fences to sit on, let em sit on the ground or, if they are afraid of catching cold, take sides and declare themselves.

the international news, to get my mind off of farm problems, and while I don't understand much about foreign affairs, I notice there are a lot of experts in the same boat with me. In fact, probably the more foreign affairs you know about the less you understand.

At any rate, I read in a newspaper last night where the Prime Minister of India, a man named Nehru, was complaining because, he said, "the United States expects other countries to take sides and leaves no room for any country to sit on the fence."

This just goes to show how little that Prime Minister understands about the United States.

In this country we believe it In the United States, when a man can't find a fence to sit on, he just doesn't have any business running for office, and as far as I'm concerned foreign countries are going to have to build their own if that's where they want to sit.

I say not one dime of U.S. money to build fences for foreigners to sit on.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Cardinals Thump Phillies 18-6

The Cardinals came out swinging on the opening pitch in their game with the National League Phillies Monday night, July 9, and before the dust cleared from the park had won handily by a score of 18-6.

The Cardinals, coached by Niley Smith, never slowed up after they scored two runs in the first, rallied for six in the second, two in the third and five more in the fourth and then ended their scoring by adding two in the final fifth inning.

The losing Phillies, coached by Navy Chief Johnson, scored two in the second, one in the third and three in the fourth but failed to score in the bottom of the fifth.

The program at the camp includes a heavy agenda of athletics and aesthetics.

Giants Athletics All Stars Take Thriller 16-14

A full nine inning thriller which matched the all-stars of the Texas League Giants and Athletics against that leagues Cubs and Redbirds found the latter "Cub-Birds" coming out on the short end of a 16-14 score Mnday night at Yoe field.

Several members of the League were out of town which brought on the twin merger and resultant "Best game of the season" according to viewers.

Battery for the winners were Ray Green catching and Arthur Marak pitching. For the losers it was John Solomon behind the plate with Make McDermott making with the pitches from the hill. Both pitchers were very strong and went the full nine innings.

The fireworks started in the very first inning when the "Cub-Birds" took a 3-2 lead which was short lived as the "Giant-Athletics", in the third, started a rally that gave them five big runs before the last out was made. The Cub-Birds could never catch up but stayed very close all the way to give the fans a very peppy ball game.

For the winners Butch Polzer was outstanding player and Sonny Raymond was the losers outstanding player.

Vaccine In Good Polio Season Here Supply, Few Takers

The third case of polio for Milam County in 1956 involved a four year old colored girl in Milano who suffered mild paralysis. She had not received the Salk vaccine.

One hundred and forty-three polio series and 22 polio boosters were completed during June in the Milam County Health Unit Clinics. This is the first month since the first of January that has shown a decrease in the number of polio vaccinations given, despite the presence of the polio season. Plenty of vaccine is on hand at all outlets, but still a large segment of the eligible population remains unvaccinated.

Altering A Draft Card Can Get You A Draft To Prison

More than 32,000 Texans registered at local draft boards in the state during the first half of 1956, practically all of them 18-year olds.

Under present draft regulations and policies, no one is drafted under age 22 in Texas except volunteers and delinquents. But the law obligates males to register at 18.

A man who fails to register as required, upon prosecution and conviction, is subject to fine up to $10,000 or five years in prison, or both.

"Altering of registration certificates, or the carrying of registration certificates by unauthorized persons is subject to the same punishment," Colonel Schwartz said.

He pointed to the recent case of a youth in Houston who received a 10-month sentence from a federal judge upon conviction of having registration certificates printed for the purpose of selling them to youths under 18.

Some boys under 18 want the certificates, as it helps them to buy beer at public taverns.

Centex Pair Gets Hearing From USDA In Washington July 20

The two-men delegation fighting the proposed change in the state reserve cotton acreage felt that they had made progress after getting an assistant secretary of agriculture to listen to complaints about "bureaucratic oppostion to the best interests of Central Texas."

J. V. Stiles of Taylor and J. E. Goad of Rosebud left a 40-page brief with Assistant Secretary Marvin McLean, a man who usually doggedly says no. This time, he said he would give the matter his fullest consideration.

Complaints were made against two highest civil service career employes of the cotton branch, Agriculture Department - Martin (Dusty) Rhodes and Ed. Bell.

Rhodes and Bell have served under both Democratic and Republican administrations. McLean is an appointee.

In order for Stiles and Goad to get the appointment with McLean it took a Democratic congressmen's sacrificing credit for his party. Rep. Bob Poage, Waco, frankly told Stiles and Goad: "I can't get anywhere. I'm going to introduce you to Rep. Bruce Alger, Dallas, Texas' only Republican in Congress, as he's the only man they'll listen to down at the Agriculture Department."

Alger promptly said "I'll be glad to help Mr. Poage and you people," although agriculture is somewhat out of the line.

McLean inquired of the farmers how many Texas cotton farmers felt the same way they did and he was told "3 to 1". He seemed impressed.

"Stiles said: "We frankly told him we did not feel that Rhodes and Bell were interpreting the law right nor did we feel they had any sympathy or understanding of our problem. We felt they would never act to help us.

"We said Congressmen Poage and Clark Thompson, Galveston, Homer Thornberry, Austin, and others have said the law says the state committee shall apportion the state reserve and not the department in Washington. Rhodes and Bell seem to want centralization here."

The proposed change, scheduled to become effective Sunday if no one protests, would leave 2 per cent of the state rsrve for distribution by th state committee according to revised formula as to what is a hardship case and require action by the Secretary of agriculture if 8 per cent more goes to small farmers. Otherwise, it may go to big West Texas counties. Central Texas is largely made up of small farmers.

Poage and the two farmers pointed out to agriculture officials that the state committee had allocated cotton acres according to trend until recent years, so that Central Texas farms are now "hardship" cases and need additional allocations from a big state reserve. The state committee last year allocated the 10 per cent largely to hardship cases and this the Central Texans want continued.

FHA Members Meet Held At Alcoa Lake

By Mary Ellen Richter

A group of civic minded Future Homemakers of America combined their efforts on Monday, July 16, and did a good civic deed while enjoying themselves emensely at Alcoa Lake.

Rita Reid, Mary Ellen Richter, Marye Horstmann, and Gloria Harber along with their sponsors, Mrs. W. T. Whatley and Mrs. Albert Edmonds enjoyed a picnic lunch and tacked a quilt at the lake before going boating on Alcoa lake and visiting the plant.

Quilts were donated through Mrs. Bill Burns. The girls tacked, mended and made the domestic cover. When they are finished they will be distributed to needy of the community through Mrs. Burns.

The girls, while working on the quilts discussed some family get-together plans for next year's program of work in the club. They made tentative plans for the Freshman party in August. To these plans Rita Ried offered ideas which she had gathered at the National meeting of the FHA in Chicago.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Slaughter were their children; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Bielefeldt and daughter, Deloris of Abilene; M-Sgt. and Mrs. Jack Reavis and son, Craig of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Y. H. Rice and children, Pamala and Mark of Lubbock. Also Lee Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Jameson, Edward Gandy and Mr. and Mrs. George Gandy and boys all of Houston.

Queen Peggy Inge Reigns Over Milam Farm Bureau For 1956

Five Buckholts beauties and a rose from Thorndale vied for the honor finally bestowed on Peggy Inge, now Queen of the Milam County Farm Bureau for 1956, Thursday night at Simon and Geo. Memorial Hall in Cameron.

Miss Inge is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Inge, Route 2, Buckholts, escorted by James Edward Glazer.

The Milam County Farm Bureau Queen was awarded $30 for excelling in appearance, personality and poise and the right to represent the local Bureau in the District 8 Farm Bureau meet and contest to be held in Waco sometime in September.

Beyond that meet the winner will go to Houston in November and the Texas Farm Bureau Queen will go to Miami for the national meet.

Runner-up to the Queen was Bernice Marie Fischer, escorted by Joe Dean Zajicek. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fischer of Buckholts.

The beauties who presented themselves before the members of the Farm Bureau and a table full of judges were, besides the queen and runner up: Shirley Marie Schramm of Thorndale, Route 1, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Schramm; Martha Jane Hanke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hanke, Route 2, Buckholts; Bernice Vansa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vansa, Route 2, Buckholts and Margie Jane Mayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mayer of Route 1, Buckholts.

In the poise and personality part of the program, while the judges were putting in the hardest licks of their short judging careers the emcee Fred Switzer program director of KMIL asked various questions of each contestant, who was to answer the unrehearsed query over the loud speaker.

"What is your favorite housework duty?" was one of the most used questions and invariably the reply came back that cooking was the favored duty or privilege as it seemed to rate with the young ladies. The question which stopped them was "If you had one wish, you knew would come true, what would you wish for?" Some didn't know while others, like Miss Schramm, knew but wasn't going to share her secret dream. The one who "played politics" realizing the judges were farmers, and farm wives, said "I'd wish for a great big rain." This was Bernice Marie Fischer.

Judges in the contest were, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koonsen of Bell County, Gus Guenther of Williamson County, Dr. Gibney Kendrick and J. R. Porteley, both of Falls County.

Thanked by president John A. Smith for the part they played in the program were Mrs. S. W. McClaren, Mrs. Robert Jungmann, Mrs. Charles Bailey and Mrs. T. R. Allen.

New Safeway Store On Highway Gives Cameron Share In Store's Profit Rise

For the second time in 1956, Safeway Stores, Incorporated, have reported a major gain in net earnings over those for the same periods of last year. Today's report expands the company's new, more profitable trend into three-fourths of a year.

Some of those profits are going into a new store in Cameron. A $60,000 permit was granted the past week for a 65 by 125 foot masonry construction on blocks three and four of the "Grammar School Addition" which is on fourth street highway near College. The architect is listed as Raymond S. Feinberg and the permit calls for five months for completion.

Net income per share of Safeway stock equalled $2.51 during the first 24 weeks of 1956 for an average of 3,666,451 shares of common stock outstanding as against earnings of $1.29 in 1955 for an average of 3,489,184 outstanding shares.

James R. Norvell Seeks Return To Judgeship Post

As the campaign for Place 3, Supreme Court of Texas, entered its last week, Judge James R. Norvell stopped in his travels long enough to ask news editors everywhere to point out the importance of their Supreme Court to the people of Texas..

Said Norvell, "My travels have pointed out that lawyers know of this race, and are interested, but the average voter doesn't realize its importance to him. Every case that comes up in a local court may some day go to the state Supreme Court. This, in turn, means that every single person needs to be interested in the men he has elected to his Supreme Court."

Judge Norvell won the June State Bar poll of Texas lawyers by almost a four-to-one margin over his opponent, indicative of the confidence he has earned in his sixteen years on the Fourth Court of Appeals in San Antonio.

When asked the best way to find out about all court racs, Judge Norvell replied, "Ask your own attorney; he knows the qualifications of the men in the judical races." Judge Norvell summed up his campaign aim as a faster and more efficient administration of justice for all the people of Texas.

Houston Newspaper Endorses Jesse James As Treasurer

One state office which consistently has been praised by those who do business with it is that of state treasurer. Legislators and other state officials recognize the efficiency of the office. The man who has presided over the office since October, 1941. Jesse James, is now seeking his eighth two-year term as state treasurer.

James holds an office which ordinarily does not attract public attention, yet it is one of the most vital in the state government. His office is responsible for the handling of millions of dollars of state funds used for operation of the government, as well as many millions of dollars in permanent funds and securities. The absence of criticism of the way these funds have been handled is a tribute to the financial stewardship of James.

A native of Thorndale in Milam County, James worked his way through college and became a merchant in his home county. He later was elected a state representative and served three terms. H was then first assistant state treasurer for 4½ years before being appointed to the top post by Gov. Coke Stevenson in 1941. when Charley Lockhart resigned because of ill health. James has been re-elected each two years since.

The Chronicle believes that James' efficient service in the office entitles him to re-election this year.

...or the heat that's still cooking, although the current is turned off.

That's one of the many advantages offered by a modern electric range. Its top elements retain some heat which is usable for a short time after the switch is turned off. Its oven with insulation on all six sides, cooks three-fourths of the time with the electricity off.

Extra dividends: economies in cleaning materials, laundry and decorating expenses, plus less shrinkage in oven cooking.

* for by BONUS HEAT we mean the heat which remains in the cooking element after the switch is turned off.

August Plentiful Foods Announced By USDA

Rainfall To Date Short Of 1956

Supplies of broilers and fryers are making prices which should prove popular with consumers. August supplies are expected to be 20 percent above a year ago with an average of nearly 29 million birds going to market weekly. Prices are running 20 to 22 percent below last year.

Too, the USDA announced that the turkey crop is at least a third larger than a year ago with heavy breed hens and toms making up most of the excess.

Food shoppers will also find plenty of beef available. Large quantities of all grades are expected for August.

Fresh plums and Bartlett pears are two plentiful fruits listed. The plum market has its peak supply in August and prices usually break.

Other plentifuls listed for August include fresh and processed lemons, peanuts, peanut butter, rice and hens.

The USDA suggests that menus featuring broilers and fryers or even turkeys be used during the coming month because of the supplies and favorable prices of these food products.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Confused "Sit"-uation

Been meaning all week to tell you about Curley Lawson's "baby-sitting" experience.

His Mrs. left him in charge, about seven p.m., with instructions not to let the children come downstairs. So Curley read his paper and whenever he heard footsteps on the staircase he ordered the culprit back to bed. Happened three or four times.

Little while later, Mrs. Miller from next door came over to inquire if Curley had seen her Sonny. "Here I am, Mom" came a voice from upstairs, "But Mr. Lawson won't let me go home."

From where I sit, jumping to conclusions like Curley did, doesn't always make for an amusing story. I'm reminded of the people who—without due consideration—have concluded that I'm wrong to like an occasional glass of beer. Well, to my way of thinking, that's not only intolerant ... but, what's more, "minding" the other fellow's business is not the American way.

POLL SHOWS JOHN LEE SMITH AHEAD

The four candidates — John Lee Smith, Ben Ramsey, A. M. Aikin and C. T. Johnson stack up as follows:

John Lee Smith	26%
Ben Ramsey	21%
A. M. Aikin	13%
C. T. Johnson	4%
Undecided	36%
TOTAL	100%

Ignoring the undecided vote— the percentages are:

John Lee Smith	40.63
Ben Ramsey	32.81
A. M. Aikin	20.31
C. T. Johnson	6.25
TOTAL	100.00

At this time it appears that a run-off between John Lee Smith, who was Lt. Governor 1942-46 and the present Lt. Governor, Ben Ramsey, is in the offing.

Pol. Adv. Pd. For By Jack Prescott

your democratic ideas and resolutions.

Up to noon Tuesday 68 absentee ballots had been cast in person and a request for 47 ballots had been made through the mail, according to the report received at the office of Homer Nabours, county clerk.

There are only three contested races in the county. For County Attorney are Robert C. (Bob) Nelson, Jack W. Prescott and Edgar E. Hoppe; for county chairman are Max McClaren and Johnny C. Andres; for Representative of 56th District are William C. (Black) and Herman Yezak.

Election managers have been mailed checks for their services on election day and for services of the clerks in each voting precinct.

Chairman McClaren said that arrangements have been made for election returns to be announced over the loud speaker system at th courthouse Saturday night just as soon as the returns come in. Telephone service has been installed at the courthouse by the chairman so that people of the county may start getting the returns shortly after the close of polls at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Election managers have been notified to phone in their returns as soon as they have been tabulated after the closing of the polls. Polls will open at 8:00 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Precinct committeemen are to phone in their convention reports to the office of the Cameron Herald as soon as they are over. Phone 282 Cameron.

County convention will be held Saturday, August 4, at 8 p.m. at the district courtroom, in Cameron.

MEETING —
little left un-discussed about the "situation" except who gave authority for the day off.

This point could not be settled in session because Richter was not invited to the meeting nor was Police Chief Dolan who allegedly had given the "order."

A second motion to adjourn was made within five minutes and carried only after Counsel Black advised that nothing could legally be done in special session to undo what had been done on June 19 in electing to hire a second fire driver and the authority over that man given Police Chief Dolan.

After the meeting Richter, on the sidewalk, advised Mayor Weems that no one gave him the authority but that the second man (Warren McCall) was placed on duty in the fire department for the day by Police Chief Dolan and so he took the opportunity to do some needed checking about town. Richter pointed out to the mayor that it was on the mayors telephoned "orders" that he went back to work on that day.

Weems had initially said that it was due to criticism from unidentified critics that he had ordered Richter back to work and had called the extra session because the "critics" felt that the city was being left unduly without an experienced driver on duty. It was in the middle of the morning on Friday, that the mayor first noticed that Richter was off and it was before noon that he left a call for the fire driver to call him at home It was in the interim of an hour or so that the critics tied into him, thus it was quite apparent that his "Critics" knew more about Richter's being off than did the councilmen and the Fire Chief.

CANDIDATES —

"No I don't but if you don't mind I'll share my bed...you see I'll either be in the hospital, in Georgia or in Gettysburg most of the time anyway and by the way, what kind of bath soap do you prefer?" that's the kind of stature we Texans are used to. Why even our state penal system has had some of this stature added to its ivied walls.

Ralph Yarborough, can't expect to win 'em all, but he is still in there pitching. He was beaten by Washington apartment and so the trading off of the governor's job for that senator is old-hat in Texas but while on that point, just to show how you can always look for Shivers and now the governor may be over-confident by "running in a substitute" against the perennial Yarborough.

Anyway there is a definite decision for us voters to make this year and if it calls for a lot of coin tossing to get the job done then let's "break out the coins"... it's very appropriate to do this anyway because every one of them bears the inscription "IN GOD WE TRUST."

Then hastening on down the ballot we run across some familiar names. The first of which is the most familiar of them all and that is Black. William C. "Bill" Black candidate for representative of the 56th District, a youngster in politics, but you will do well to consider him for the job. Herman Yezak, is familiar because he has been on tickets before. If you like him better than you think you'd like Black to represent you then he's the man for you to x.

Most of the other county races are un-opposed candidates for re-election but they are so familiar that it just isn't fitting to skip their names entirely; There's O. D. Graham; Carl C. Black; Valter White and even old Joe Richter.

Now the race of races in Milam County has the following names:

Robert C. "Bob" Nelson who believes that one good term deserves another. Edgar Hoppe who has qualifications "running out his ears" seeks to unseat the incumbent prosecutor. And last but not least is Jack W. Prescott who realizes that "life is full of trials and tribulations" but believes that the office and the life of a prosecutor should be even more so than has been evidenced in the presnt administration.

If you've "lost you vote" in the past just remember what the baseball manager said "Don't let that worry you boy— we can't win every time."

NELSON —
World War II, having served as a petty officer on landing craft in the U. S. Navy.

If re-elected, Nelson says that he will continue to devote his time and attention to the duties of his office, suppress crime, prosecute offenders of the law without fear or favor, protect the innocent, and in short, to continue to refuse to bow to pressure from any individual or group, and be a public servant worthy of the confidence of the citizens of Milam County.

He invites the people to investigate his character, his ability and standing as a lawyer, and his record as County Attorney during his first term.

Nelson states that he will appreciate the vote and support of the citizens of Milam County in his effort for a second term.

POLICE —

Seems they were just out for a lark with a fellow named Jim Glover of Carlsbad New Mexico. A picture show in Cameron was decided on to fill the gap while their car was being doctored. Well about the time the villian was about to strangle the girl or some other such gripping moment when one would least be expected to notice his thirst the gentleman escort just had to go out for a drink. He excused himself from the young ladies and as he passed the cooler in the lobby he just "happened to feel a $50 bill in his pocket." Well he never knew whether the picture turned out with a happy ending or not and may never know unless he gets to see the show in Carlsbad or som the show in Carlsbad or some other city.

Well the girls reported the loss of their money, their boy friend and their whole program of fun turned sour. Chief Brandenburg went with them at the late hour of about 10:45 to help them get some of their belongings out of the car which was locked in the motor company. With police like thoroughness he further inspected the car and came up with a money bag from a bank in Carlsbad New Mexico full of hypodermic needles and incidental equipment that would suggest ode...Thepn that would suggest dope...Then the lights went out.

Chief Willie Dolan was then called into the act while Brandenburg caught a drunken driver and got the lights turned on. Dolan checked out the identity of the ladies. The boss of one of them came from Taylor to pick them up. Dolan then put in a "28 and 29" through Rockdale police radio which is code for determination of registration of the vehicle and whether or not it was stolen. Five days later a report came through from Rockdale.

Texas Ranger Hollis Sillivan of Hearne took up the investigation from a narcotics standpoint. A telephone call to the chief of police of Carlsbad was made and a full investigation from that end of the line is now underway. The Carlsbad Chief stated that the hypodermic needles did not tie in with anything listed on his unsolved crimes there but that the money bag from the local bank might be involved in something.

Glover had only a record of arrests for drunk and disturbance.

The investigation still goes on.. "Brandy" (the night chief) is still suffering a "slow-burn" because he had to give up his big job with a possible narcotics to the boss all because some joker had to go and knock out the lights ...but he solved that one on the spot...and got his conviction.

Busy nights are not unusual with the Cameron police but nights just like this one are.

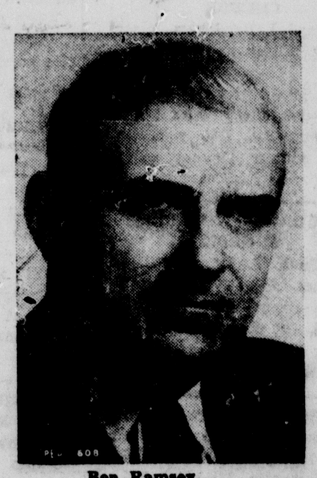
(Pol. Adv. Pd. by Bob Nelson)

TO MY FRIENDS IN MILAM COUNTY:

You are returning me to the State Senate for four years without an opponent and I am deeply grateful.

As Lieutenant Governor, Ben Ramsey has always been helpful with our district problems and I know that he will continue that same interest in the future. I have found him a man of sound judgement with keen interest in measures which he believes are for the good of Texas. Ramsey's proven record of impartiality and integrity is especially important these next two years since new figures will occupy two of the highest offices in our state government.

On this basis, I trust that you will support Ben Ramsey for Lieutenant Governor.



Ben Ramsey

Sincerely,
Jarrard Secrest
Your State Senator
